Four-Show Season Begins June 18 and Runs Through Christmas

Expect a summer of Broadway entertainment for all tastes as Cabrillo Stage presents their expanded 29th season of live, professional, musical theatre. This year's productions include a reprise of "I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change" performing in the Black Box Theater June 18 - July 3 and in the Cabrillo Crocker Theater "Swing!" performing June 25 - July 18 and "Cabaret" July 23 - August 15 with "Scrooge" as their fourth and Christmas production.

Last summer Cabrillo Stage sold-out critically acclaimed productions of "I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change", "The Wizard Of Oz" and "Scrooge."

"This is an amazing time of growth and artistic vision for the company," says Producing Artistic Director Jon Nordgren. "With the new Performing Arts facilities and the success of our last two seasons, this is the perfect opportunity for Cabrillo Stage to expand its season and, 'make our garden grow.'"

Back by popular demand, the original cast of 2009's "I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change" returns for three weeks starting June 18. This hit musical comedy tackles the truths and myths behind the contemporary conundrum known as "the relationship." Four actors play over forty characters in a hilarious series of vignettes that take the audience through the complexities and absurdity of dating, love and finally marriage. Hailed by critics as "Seinfeld set to music," the show reveals the difficulties and joys of connecting with another person, no matter what age.

Starting June 25 is "Swing!" That's how Fats Waller defined the uniquely American form of popular music and dance known as "Swing, Two-thirds rhythm and one-third soul." Exploding out of pre-war Harlem's hotbed of youth culture, swing swept the world, shattering ethnic and cultural barriers. Swing! celebrates this remarkable diversity to the beat of the most exhilarating songs of the period. What this enthralling song-and-dance show makes abundantly clear is that swing was never a time or place, it has always been a state of mind!

Cabrillo Stage's third summer offering is "Cabaret" opening July 23. Winner of 12 Tony Awards for both the original and revival productions, "Cabaret" is a brilliantly conceived musical masterpiece. Set in the early days of the Nazi regime, the Kit Kat Klub is a decadent refuge from the political turmoil outside. The cabaret's gleefully lecherous emcee offers social commentary between numbers by English expatriate and party girl Sally Bowles, who believes that life is a cabaret.

Cabrillo Stage's expanded 2010 season offers subscription packages (four shows for as low as $95), individual and group ticket rates, special children's presentations and pre/post-show discussions. Subscription packages are now available online. Individual ticket sales at the box office start May 28.

Summer Rep Season runs June 18 to August 15.
